

Lent & Easter

A wooden cross is positioned diagonally across the right side of the page. To its right are several white lilies with yellow stamens, set against a light, textured background.

St Mark's, Newnham

As we prepare for Easter, there are lots of special things going on at St Mark's – and you are warmly invited to join us for any of them. Details are overleaf, but for further details please see the St Mark's website: www.stmarksnewnham.org

Our normal services continue as usual.

Sunday worship each week:

- 8am     Holy Communion from the Book of Common Prayer (said)
10am     Holy Communion (with Junior church on the first three Sundays of the month during term time, all-age on the fourth Sunday)

Tuesday each week

- 11am     Holy Communion from the Book of Common Prayer (said)

A series of Lent talks

'Images of God'

Each Wednesday at St Mark's, 7.30pm (with refreshments)

Please join us for a series of talks looking at some of the images of God we find in the Bible.

13th March - Richard Bauckham    3rd April - Alison Gray
20th March - Ally Barrett        10th April - Craig Bartholomew
27th March - Philip Jensen        17th April - Dani Redhead

Mothering Sunday

It is our tradition to have a joint service with Grantchester and Trumpington on fifth Sundays in the month. You are warmly invited to join us for our special Mothering Sunday Joint service at the 'Mother Church' in Grantchester (although St Mark's is now a thriving parish in its own right, it was originally a 'daughter' church born out of Grantchester in the late 19th century.) Our service will be suitable for all and will be at 10.30am on Sunday 31st March.
